FOREWORD

Dear Media Representative,

The 15th edition of the Men's EHF European Handball Championship, the EHF EURO 2022, will be hosted by Hungary and Slovakia from 13 to 30 January 2022.

However, before teams can dream of a place at the final tournament, they need to prove themselves in the upcoming qualification phase, which will see 32 countries competing over six rounds between November 2020 and May 2021.

The participating nations have been drawn into eight groups of four, from where they will fight for the 20 available places at the final tournament. After playing on a home-and-away basis in a round-robin system, the two top-ranked teams in each group and four best third ranked teams will progress to the finals.

As hosts, Hungary and Slovakia were automatically assured two of the 24 available spots at the final tournament, which will represent a first for the two central European nations to co-host.

Alongside the hosts, the finalists of the 2020 edition, Spain and Croatia, have their tickets to the EHF EURO 2022 secured. They will join the two host nations in the EHF EURO Cup during the six national team weeks reserved for the qualification phase.

For you, the media, the EHF Media and Communications Department has prepared this media guide to provide a comprehensive overview of all 32 teams participating. It contains an extensive overview of all records of players and teams, as well as head-to-head statistics for the eight qualification groups, tournament history and media contacts at each of the competing national federations.

After finally getting their hands on an EHF EURO medal at the 2020 event, where they won bronze, Norway will be keenly targeting one of the spots at the final tournament. Playing against Belarus, Latvia and Italy in qualification group 6, Norway will not only aim to reach the final event but will ultimately be hoping to be present on the final weekend once more. You can read more about their team on page 31.

Current world champions Denmark will play from group 7, meeting North Macedonia, Switzerland and Finland. The Danes will surely be looking to make a statement in this qualification phase, following their early exit from the EHF EURO 2020 and their subsequent lowest ranking in history. To find out more about Denmark go to page 36.

Throughout the qualification phase, the EHF Media and Communications Department will continually update the media with results and news relating to the tournament.

However, if you have any questions or queries, the department is only an email away, so please feel free to get in touch with the team in Vienna on media@eurohandball.com.

LIDL UNVEILED AS PRESENTING PARTNER

The international retailer Lidl has been named presenting partner of the Men's EHF EURO 2022 Qualifiers.

The agreement extends the EHF's partnership with Lidl, which previously sponsored the Men's EHF EURO in 2018 and 2020.

The first round of Qualifiers get under way on 4 November 2020, and as part of the deal Lidl will benefit from brand exposure on LED boards, two floor stickers on court as well as additional activation rights.

A new composite logo will be integrated into related digital channels, print materials and media backdrops.

EHF Secretary General Martin Hausleitner said: "I am delighted that we are able to further strengthen what has already been a long-lasting cooperation with Lidl.

"The EHF EURO Qualifiers see Europe's top national teams competing in matches watched by large TV audiences, offering a presenting partner extensive brand exposure and the opportunity to reach fans right across the continent."

Qualification features 32 teams playing for 20 places at the Men's EHF EURO 2022, which will be hosted by Hungary and Slovakia between 13 and 30 January 2022.

Alongside the two hosts, the defending champions, Spain, and EHF EURO 2020 finalists, Croatia, have already qualified and compete in EHF EURO Cup in preparation for the final tournament.

EHF EURO CUP

Starting the first week of November 2020, parallel to the Men's EHF EURO 2022 Qualifiers, the two 2022 host nations, Hungary and Slovakia, together with 2020 champions Spain and 2020 runners-up Croatia will play the first matches of the EHF EURO Cup. The competition sees the four participating nations facing each other in home and away matches. These matches form the participants' - all four are directly qualified to EHF EURO 2022 - very own road to the final tournament in January 2022.

The EHF EURO Cup was introduced for the first time ahead of the continental championships in 2020 and Spain claimed the maiden title after a roundrobin group with three 2020 hosts - Norway, Sweden and Austria.

EHF EURO 2022 HOSTS & VENUES

The EHF EURO 2022 will be the 15th edition of the tournament and the second to feature 24 national teams after a premiere of this format in 2020. It will be co-hosted in two countries, Hungary and Slovakia, whose joint bid to host the championship succeeded at the 14th EHF Ordinary Congress in Glasgow, Scotland in June 2018. Both countries will host the Men's EHF EURO for the first time in history.

The official EHF EURO 2022 logo was presented on the fringes of the EHF EURO 2020 Final weekend in Stockholm. It includes the national colours of both host nations - red, green, white and blue. The logo relates closely to the event's motto "watch games, see more", highlighting the many opportunities for fans around the five venues.

The EHF EURO 2022 will be hosted by Bratislava (two groups of the preliminary round and main round) and Kosice (preliminary round) in Slovakia; Debrecen, Szeged (both preliminary round) and Budapest (preliminary round, main round and final weekend) in Hungary from 13-30 January 2020.

The matches in the Hungarian capital will be staged in the new Budapest Aréna. The playing system with six preliminary round groups and two main round remains the same as in 2022.
