Terms and Conditions

As of: 01. July 2019

1. Eligibility for participation

Any person is eligible to participate in courses offered by the Department of Further Education. Minors must include a declaration of consent from their legal guardian in their application. If courses stipulate certain admission requirements, participants must fulfil these. The admission requirements are stated in the course descriptions. Participation in all practical courses is only permitted if the applicant has completed a health check-up prior to commencement of the course. If too few applicants register for the course, the German Sport University Cologne (hereafter "GSU Cologne") reserves the right to cancel the course.

2. Application

Applications for courses can be made by handing in or sending the properly completed application form, including all necessary certificates. By signing the applicant acknowledges the terms and conditions. No later than the expiry of the application deadline will the applicant receive written confirmation whether the minimum number of people have applied and whether the course will take place or not. If there are not enough places on a course, the unsuccessful applicant will be notified immediately. Applications will be considered in the order in which they are received. The application is binding subject to the provisions of No. 4.

3. Fees

The costs for the courses can be found in the course descriptions. The fees must be transferred on to the account of the GSU Cologne no later than when the course commences. Fees do not include the participant's board or lodging. Lunch is included only for single, specifically indicated events. A discount in the fees for external students, unemployed persons and apprentices/trainees is only given if the respective status exists during application. If a course is cancelled at short notice and cannot be held at a later date, the fee already paid will be refunded. Any further claims to costs for travel etc. are not permitted.

4. Cancellation

Participants may withdraw from courses without giving reasons. This must be given written text. Withdrawal is exempt from charges within 8 weeks of the commencement of the course. Cancellations up to 3 weeks before the commencement of the course are subject to a charge of 20% of the course fee of at least €20. Cancellations later than 3 weeks prior to commencement of the course will be subject to a charge of 50% of the course fee. The participant is entitled to prove to GSU Cologne that the cancellation has caused no or a substantially lower damage than the fixed penalty. The cancellation fee will not be charged if the participant can prove a breach of duty on the part of the GSU Cologne. If the participant withdraws from the course after it has commenced, he/she will be charged the full cost of the course. Non-attendance of the course, regardless of the point of time, does not exempt the participant from the obligation to pay. No charge will be made if the participant can find an authorized substitute until 3 days before the commencement of the course and the aforementioned substitute has handed in a binding application in accordance with number 1 of the principal terms and conditions. The cancellation of the original participant is to be carried out in written text. The original participant and substitute are responsible for their own financial settlement of the fee paid. If the participant is unable to find an authorized substitute and his/her non-attendance is due to ill health and if he/she has medical certificate stating such, the course fee is lowered to 50% of the original fee.

5. Liability

The GSU Cologne and its employees are only liable for wilful intent and gross negligence – except in the case of injury to health, body or the life of a participant and the duty to carry out the course. The participants are responsible for their own insurance coverage.

6. Data protection

Name and addresses of participants are handled solely for the purpose of the execution of the further education course, for accounting purposes and for passing on information about future courses. The legal basis is article 6 (1) sentence 1b) DS-GVO. For more information, please see our data protection information.

7. General information

If participants are absent for more than 10% of the lessons of the course as well as missing the integrated practical units the Department of Further Education reserves the right not to award a certificate to a participant. The content, schedule and dates of the further education courses as well as the assignment of speakers and instructors can be changed by the Department of Further Education whilst keeping the overall character of the course.
